

Becca Nelson – Composer Agent (US Office)

Becca is a film and music agent and represents composers, songwriters, film editors, music editors, and music supervisors. She manages the US Office for Air-Edel Associates.

Originally from Papillion, Nebraska, Becca moved to Arlington, TX to study International Music Business at the University of Texas at Arlington. She immersed herself in the vibrant Texan music scene by tracking and promoting local musicians through her time spent as an assistant at a local Dallas recording studio and by booking touring country artists at venues statewide including the legendary Billy Bob's.

Upon completing her degree, Becca moved to Los Angeles to grow her career in music representation. She gained traction under the auspices of Golden Globe-winning and Grammy-nominated songwriter and producer Jimmy Harry, and she continues to work with him in an agent-client capacity through Air-Edel.

Becca works with professionally established clients and new talent alike to nurture their creative endeavors. By cultivating key relationships with major players in the entertainment industry, she has helped a number of clients reach new levels of success.

Becca spends her time outside of work trying to keep up with her 4 young nieces.
