

Ciara Elwis – Assistant Music Supervisor

Ciara joined Air-Edel in 2015 after graduating with First Class Honours in music from Edinburgh University. Prior to this, Ciara worked as a student brand manager for Spotify and spent a year abroad in France studying musicology. She also holds performance diplomas in Flute and Theatrical Singing from The Associated Board of the Royal Schools of Music (ABRSM) and London College of Music (LCM) respectively.

She began work at Air-Edel as office assistant/secretary where alongside managing the company's marketing and social media platforms, taking care of studio clients and working with the composers on pitches, she was quickly inducted into the world of sync, assisting Matt Biffa on TV productions including E4's 'Aliens' and Netflix's 'Lovesick' (season 2).

In 2016 she moved into the office and started to work as assistant music supervisor in a full-time capacity, with work including Sally Potter's 'The Party', starring Timothy Spall, Kristin Scott Thomas and Cillian Murphy, 'Loaded' for Channel 4, 'Cold Feet' (season 7) for ITV and 'The End of the Fing World' for Netflix.

More recently she has begun to supervise her own projects, working on 'Derry Girls' for Channel 4, and clearing tracks for short film 'Barbados' directed by Misha Manson Smith for Funny or Die, and the 'Take That Wonderland Concert', broadcast by Sky in Dec 2017. She also worked as score supervisor on upcoming horror 'Await Further instructions' and is currently working alongside Matt on the new Simon Pegg & Nick Frost feature 'Slaughterhouse Rulez' for Sony Pictures.
