BIOGRAPHY

Andrea is an award-winning composer for film, games and theatre. His recent work includes co-orchestrating with Dario Marianelli on the original score for 'Pinocchio' (dir. Matteo Garrone), composing for faith-grappling US drama 'Speaking In Tongues' (dir. Nathan Deming), and Italian feature film 'Il Contagio - Tainted Souls', premiered at the 74th Venice International Film Festival. In 2019, his score for the video game 'Astrologaster' was released by Air-Edel Records, and featured on the BBC Radio 3 show 'Sound of Gaming'.

Andrea's scores have been awarded internationally by film music juries and at film festivals, his themes being defined tasteful, technically effective and emotionally intense. In 2019, he received the Prix Cinézik for the original music of 'Scaramouche Scaramouche' (dir. Arthur Mólard) at the 20th Aubagne International Film Festival. In the same year, he was also awarded the Universal Music Publishing Award at the 14th Cortinametraggio film festival, for the music of 'L'Interprete' by Hleb Papou. In 2015, he received a Jerry Goldsmith Award for his composition 'Song for Adele'.

An alumnus of The Royal College of Music, Berlinale Talents and The Hospital Club Emerging Creatives Programme, Andrea has been based in London since 2013. His work has been broadcast on RAI, SKY CINEMA, CBC, and screened at international film festivals such as Venice, Clermont-Ferrand, Austin, Edinburgh, Festival du Nouveau Cinéma, Aubagne and Fantasia among others.
