BIOGRAPHY

Composer Michael Reola's music can be heard in an eclectic range of projects including feature films, documentaries and television shows. Being mentored by one of TV's most sought after composers, he has contributed music to a wide variety of high-profile projects for all of the major television networks including HBO, Showtime, ABC, NBC, CBS, and the CW. His credits include HBO and Showtime's Mayweather vs Pacquiao, the George Clooney/Grant Haslov produced "America's Game and the Iran Hostage Crisis", 4 Seasons of ABC Family's Melissa and Joey, and over a dozen feature films. Michael holds a Master's Degree in Classical composition from NYU and is a guitar player/performer opening for acts such as the progressive guitarist and producer Adrian Belew (NIN, Frank Zappa, Talking Heads).
