BIOGRAPHY

Based out of Los Angeles, Composer Michael Reola's scores are a blend of live instruments, modern production elements, and over a decade of studio and scoring experience earned working alongside some of the most prolific composers in Hollywood.

Michael Reola's music can be heard in an eclectic range of projects including feature films, documentaries, television shows, and concert venues. His music has even been heard in space... Well, during a special broadcast for the astronauts at the International Space Station (Co-composer for telecast: Mayweather vs Pacquiao). Recent credits include 'The Expanding Universe of Ashley Garcia' (Netflix), 'A Christmas Winter Song' (Mar Vista), 'The Rest of Us' (Sundance Lab and Film Independent Lab), and 'Believe' (Smith Global Media, Sony Pictures). In addition to writing for film and TV, Michael also composes contemporary classical and experimental music combining elements from multiple genres. When not composing, Michael enjoys teaching Electronic Music Synthesis online to Master's Degree candidates at Southern Utah University.

His scores have been called:

"Spine-tingling" - VARIETY

"Stirring" - HOLLYWOOD REPORTER

Awards:

-2012 Best Score, The Guest House, Melbourne Independent Film Festival

-2007 Best Score, Ballad of Breaking George (Orlando Hispanic Film Festival)
