BIOGRAPHY

Kazuma Jinnouchi is one of the most sought-after composers with over 20 years of experience in the field of scoring films and video games. Known for his creative and innovative approach to music composition, Jinnouchi has worked on numerous high-profile projects throughout his career, cementing his reputation as one of the industry's leading talents.

Jinnouchi's portfolio includes a diverse range of titles, spanning across multiple genres and platforms. He has worked on several notable video game titles, including the critically acclaimed 'Halo 5: Guardians', for which he was nominated for BAFTA Games Awards' Best Music category, 'Metal Gear Solid 4: Guns of the Patriots', and most recently, 'Marvel's Iron Man VR'. His contribution to the soundtracks of these games has been widely praised, with many fans and critics commending his ability to create immersive and emotionally resonant music that enhances the gaming experience.

Despite his success in the gaming industry, Jinnouchi's talents extend beyond the world of video games. He has also composed music for several films, including the Japanese animated fantasy adventure 'Suzume' (co-composed with RADWIMPS), which won Best Music at the 46th Japan Academy Film Prize awards and was nominated for the World Soundtrack Awards Discovery of the Year. Recently, he composed Disney+'s 'Star Wars Visions: the Ninth Jedi', Netflix's 'Ghost in the Shell SAC_2045', 'ULTRAMAN', and has collaborated with several renowned musicians and artists throughout his career.
