BIOGRAPHY

Kevin Smithers is an award-winning multi-instrumentalist composer, arranger and songwriter of a range of musical styles. He was born in Mexico City, Mexico and studied at the Fermatta Music Academy (at the time, part of the Berklee International Network) for two years. He continued his studies in London at the London Centre of Contemporary Music where he received a degree in Performance and Production, focusing his last year in the modules of Musical Directing/Arranging and Audio-Visual Synchronization.

After finishing his studies in London, Kevin was awarded a scholarship to complete a Master's Degree in Scoring for Film, TV and Video Games at Berklee College of Music's campus in Valencia, Spain, graduating Summa Cum Laude. There, he further developed his skills in writing to picture, interactive music, and implementation.

Kevin now resides in Los Angeles, California where he's been a part of prestigious programs like the BMI Conducting Workshop, Sundance Music in Animation Intensive, Berlinale Talents, SESAC Scores and BMI Composer Workshop. Kevin continues to develop his own voice in the world of film, TV and video game music. His work has been featured on networks such as HBO, Comedy Central, MTV, Bravo, Discovery and CNN, among others.
