BIOGRAPHY

Alex Wurman is known for his versatility, broad musical range, and powerful storytelling. His music moves from the majestic, ethereal score for the Oscar-winning film "March of the Penguins", to the '70s-inspired comedy "Anchorman", the eerie piano melodies for "Confessions of A Dangerous Mind", and contemporary, minimalism for his Emmy award-winning score for HBO's "Temple Grandin".

He has elevated critically acclaimed projects like "Between Two Ferns: The Movie", HBO's "The Newsroom", and "Patriot", with a forthcoming HBO limited series, "DTF St. Louis" (Jason Bateman, David Harbour, Linda Cardellini).
