BIOGRAPHY

Anton Sanko is an acclaimed composer and music producer from New York City, now based in Los Angeles. He recently scored the hit Amazon Prime series 'Hotel Costiera' (2025), which debuted at #1 worldwide.

His film work includes 'Rabbit Hole', 'The Half of It', 'Fractured', 'The Seagull', 'Ouija', and 'The Possession' and the Parker Posey classic "Party Girl", along with Mikhaël Hers' 'Les Passagers de la Nuit' (2023, starring Charlotte Gainsbourg) and 'Amanda' (2019) each of which earned him César nominations (French Academy Award).

For TV, Sanko has scored the highly acclaimed series 'The Romanoffs' (Matt Weiner, Amazon) and 'Big Love' (HBO) and the series 'Siren' (Disney/Freeform). He received an Emmy nomination for 'Ring of Fire' (Lifetime).

As a producer and arranger, Sanko arranged Suzanne Vega's hit song "Luka," co-wrote on her album Solitude Standing, and produced and co-wrote on her album "Days of Open Hand".
